Dear Parents,

7th December 2022.

GCSE and A Level results 2022

We are pleased to publish our GCSE and A Level results 2022.

Enclosed are the official grades that our pupils were awarded by the examination boards AQA, Edexcel and OCR this year.

Amongst other data you will find the following:

Page: 7 - 9 GCSE Results converted into traditional alphabetical grades

Page: 12 - 13 The School's Alps Score (St. John's results compared to the Department of Education National dataset) where the school was ranked within the top 1% of the country.

Page: 14 - 15 A Level Results

Page: 16 - 25 A Level Destinations 2022 (including university destinations since 2017)

Page: 26 - 31 Key Stage 1 & 2 SATS results 2021/22 (including 2017 onwards)

We are extremely pleased that our results continue to repeat the excellent pattern which St. John's has set each year, ever since the very first exams our pupils sat back in 1996. With 85% of our A Level students going to Russell Group Universities this has been a very successful year which we can look back upon proudly, particularly considering that both the GCSE and A Level students began their respective courses in a lockdown.

We hope that on reading through the pages, you will join us in congratulating our students for all their hard work as they continue the tradition at St. John's of producing excellent examination results in line with the school motto: Res Ipsa Loquitur – "The Thing Speaks for Itself."

Yours faithfully,

A. Tardios

Nine things you should know about 9 to 1 GCSE grades

9

GCSEs in England have been reformed and are graded with a new scale from 9 to 1, with 9 being the highest grade.

8

New GCSE content is more challenging.

7

Fewer grade 9s are awarded than A*s.

6

English language, English literature and maths were the first to be graded from 9 to 1 in 2017.

5

Another 20 subjects have been graded 9 to 1 in 2018 and most others followed in 2019.

4

The new grades were brought in to signal that GCSEs have been reformed and to differentiate between students of different abilities more efficiently.

3

Broadly speaking, the proportion of students who were awarded grades 1, 4 & 7 in the reformed system would have been awarded grades G, C & A in the old system of grading.

2

Regulators in Wales and Northern Ireland are not introducing the new 9 to 1 grading scale as part of the changes to GCSEs in their jurisdiction.

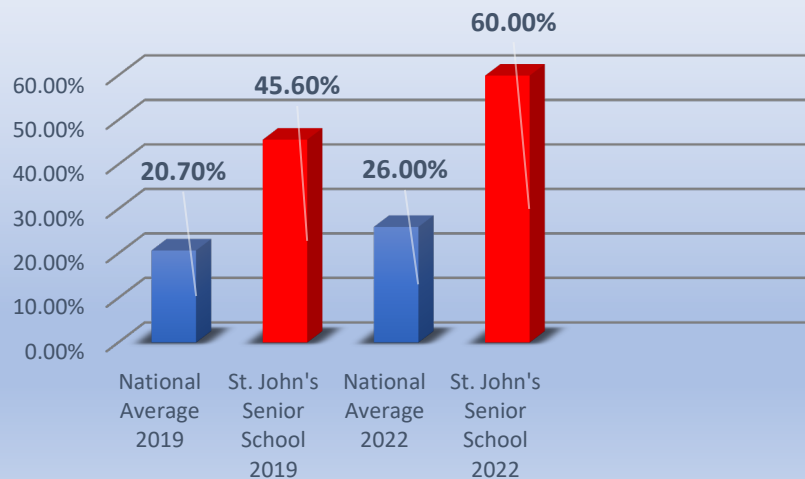

1

You can see how the 9 to 1 grades compare with the A* to G scale in the infographic on the left.

Comparison of St. John's students who scored 7,8,9 with national outcomes pre-pandemic and post pandemic

Alps Explained

Alps (Advanced Level Performance System) is the result of over 30 years of careful research and development. In the Alps' Report, the School's results are compared to the Alps benchmarks created from the full Department for Education (DfE) national dataset.

Throughout the Alps analysis there is a common grading system that works at three levels which are interlinked and allow us to look at the analysis at different depths.

These are:

Matching top 25%+	RED	Alps grades 1 – 3
Matching middle 50%	BLACK	Alps grades 4 – 6
Matching bottom 25%-	BLUE	Alps grades 7 – 9

Alps Colours

- RED means the performance is within or exceeds the top 25% of the DfE benchmark.
- BLACK means the performance is between the best 25% and the worst 25% of the DfE benchmark.
- BLUE means the performance is within or is worse than the bottom 25% of the DfE benchmark.

Alps – what the scores of 1.0 (Outstanding) mean for the school's A level and GCSE analysis

St. John's A Level and GCSE Quality Indicator scores of 1.0 mean that on average, across all subjects, students have achieved the expected points. This accurately reflects the quality of the school's teaching and learning in the 5th and Upper 6th year groups measured in relation to their prior achievement baseline score.

The Alps methodology is based on groups of students. On any benchmark thermometer within the report, if the Actual points equals the Expected points then the score will be 1.0.

$$\text{Alps measure} = \frac{(\text{Actual points} - \text{expected points})}{(\text{Number of students} \times 100)} + 1$$

Much appreciated! And you have really taught me how to prepare for and behave in any future interview, which is even more important than performing well in an Oxford admissions interview. I Got in!

I hope you are well, my place at UCL is confirmed, thank you very much for the help and support in the past 2 years, it's been a pleasure to be one of the St. Johnians!

I had to express my admiration for my pupil Leah who managed to complete her two year Business A Level in just two terms! I never imagined it possible, but she did it! Mr. O'Neill

I would like to thank you for everything you have done for me and the opportunity you gave me. You put yourself on the line for me and believed in me when nobody else did. I promise one day to return and repay you all.

Hope you are well. I am just writing to thank you for all the support you have given me for these past few years. I am grateful that I had the opportunity to thrive in such an environment that constantly supported me from the start of my journey at St. John's till the end. The advice that you have given me especially during 6th form, is something that I will take with me as I embark into my undergraduate studies.

Thank you soooooo much sir, 😊 I will return to London and say thank you face to face
